

The brothers and sisters of famous Mexican pianists are here to take care of it!

usst music department 2019-10-09

Who are they?

A group of pianists from Mexico !

They are--

Omar & Ivanna

They will bring you a wonderful classical double piano concert at the Concert Hall of the University of Shanghai for Science and Technology at 19:30 on October 11, 2019 (Friday) ! The performance will also specially invite Zheng Wendi, a 17th alumnus of Shangli and member of the Steel Association, to perform the 60th anniversary dual piano commemorative version of "Blessings of Love" with Omar.

Please bring the campus card to the concert hall in exchange for concert tickets

About Omar&Ivanna

They are outstanding young pianists in Mexico. They not only learned the piano, but also mastered violin and composition skills. The siblings' professional excellence has enabled them to obtain numerous domestic and international concert performance opportunities. Their performances are powerful yet elegant stage performances.

The album "The Art of Two Pianos" released by the siblings in recent years was recorded in Grand Venice . The album contains various types of dance music performed by the double piano, including works by Borodin, Saint-Saëns, Marcus and Piazzolla.

The art of two pianos

In the upcoming concert of the same name in the concert hall, two pianists will reproduce the tracks from their new album. It is worth mentioning that this year is the 60th anniversary of the birth of the Chinese violin concerto " Birthday Lovers" . At the same time, to reflect the exchange of music, culture and art between China and Mexico, this concert will also specially invite the 17th Polytechnic alumni and the Shangli Philharmonic Steel Association.

Sister Zheng Wendi, a member of the group, played a dual piano original "Blessings of Love" with Omar .
